Dates:

- June 2, 2016 – June 5, 2017
- 2016 SportQuest Leadership Training Weekend: June 2-5, 2016
- Depart U.S. for Belgium: June 5, 2016
- SportQuest Belgium Project Dates: July 12 – 31, 2016
- 2017 SportQuest Leadership Training Weekend: June 1-4, 2017
- Depart Belgium for U.S.: June 5, 2017

Costs:

- SportQuest Belgium Project Cost: $1,995.00 + travel
- SportQuest Leadership Training Weekend Cost: $125 + travel
  - Cost includes all conference materials, meals, and lodging. The Leadership Training Weekend is required for all interns. This cost will be added to your project invoice and can be fundraised.
  - This will take place at Camp Y'Shua in Lawton, OK. SQ will work with you to book and arrange travel at no additional cost.
- Additional Apprenticeship Cost: Contact SportQuest for details
  - This cost covers a portion of your food and living expenses during your apprenticeship apart from the SportQuest Belgium Summer Project. This cost will be added to your project invoice and can be fundraised. Host families and SportQuest Belgium Staff help keep the cost low.
- International Airfare: Because you will travel overseas on your own, you will need to make arrangements for your round trip international transportation to and from Brussels, BE. This cost is separate from your SportQuest Belgium Project cost; however, if SportQuest arranges your international transportation you may fundraise your airline ticket cost.
  - If you desire to fundraise your airline cost, allow SportQuest to book your international transportation to and from Brussels, BE. The cost of your international airfare will be added to your invoice and monies must be in your account to cover this purchase. A $25.00 Booking Fee will be added to your invoice. A ticket will not be purchased until you have approved the flight itinerary and have the needed funds.
- Miscellaneous Funds: Spending money for souvenirs, gifts, recreational activities, etc...

Living Situation:

- Christian Belgian host families connected with SportQuest Belgium

Transportation:

- Host family, SportQuest Belgium Staff, train, bike, etc.
- Majority of travel expenses covered in living expense cost. Could be an occasional personal expense, especially for recreational activities.

Responsibilities:

- Provide support and service to the SportQuest Belgium Staff
- Planning and preparing for the SportQuest Belgium Projects
- Serving partner churches
- Helping with follow-up programs (discipling and encouraging youth)
- Involvement in local ministry
- Tasks might range from administrative duties and office work to setting up training camp facilities, leading training camp workshops, Bible studies and helping to plan and prepare for the SportQuest Belgium project.

Besides providing support and service to the SportQuest Belgium Staff, apprentices will be challenged to grow personally in their own spiritual walk, leadership abilities, and relational skills. Structure will be given for apprentices to develop in these ways through times of prayer and worship, living in community, reading assignments, involvement in a local church, and working alongside experienced missionaries and ministry leaders. A special focus will be given to help apprentices process their experiences and help them discern the callings and giftings God has given them. There will also be time for recreation, rest, and some sightseeing along the way.
